

PLAN FOR A NUCLEAR WASTE DUMP IN THE TERRITORY STILL STANDS

Despite promising to do so, the Rudd Government still hasn't dumped John Howard's plan to dump nuclear waste in the Northern Territory.

The NT election allows Territorians to send a strong message to Canberra that we don't want a nuclear waste dump imposed on the Territory.

Check that your candidate in the NT election strongly opposes the nuclear waste dump and the laws from Canberra that override the rights of Territorians.

NOWHERE HERE IN THE MIDDLE

Special film screening

A film by Tara Jones.

WHAT THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT CALLS "THE MIDDLE OF NOWHERE" THESE PEOPLE CALL HOME.

This documentary travels to the NT to meet the people who live at the proposed radioactive waste dump sites, shedding light on the dark implications of these plans.

Followed by guest speakers including election candidates and Muckaty Traditional Owners.
